

WHAT IS THE ECRI STATISTICAL PACKAGE?

Since 2003, the European Credit Research Institute (ECRI) has published a highly authoritative, widely cited and complete set of statistics on consumer credit in Europe. This valuable research tool allows users to make meaningful comparisons between all 27 EU member states as well as with a number of selected non-EU countries, including the US and Canada.

WHAT IS COVERED?

Two Statistical Packages are on offer. The more comprehensive product “Lending to Households (1995-2010)” contains valuable data on consumer credit, housing loans, other loans, total household loans, loans to non-financial corporations as well as total credit to the non-financial business and household sector. The ‘standard’ “Consumer Credit in Europe (1995-2010)” exclusively covers consumer credit data.

The European Credit Research Institute (ECRI) provides in-depth analysis and insight into the structure, evolution and regulation of retail financial services markets in Europe. Through its research activities, publications and conferences, ECRI keeps its members and the wider public up-to-date on a variety of topics, such as retail financial services, credit reporting and consumer protection at the European level.

ECRI is an independent, non-profit research institute whose interdisciplinary team of researchers and academic cooperation partners have developed a specialised body of knowledge on retail financial markets. It was founded in 1999 by a consortium of European banking and financial institutions. ECRI's operations and staff are managed by the Centre for European Policy Studies (CEPS) in Brussels.
